Answer

Minister of State in the Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions and Minister of State in the Prime Minister's Office. (DR. JITENDRA SINGH)
(a): The Central Vigilance Commission (CVC) on its own exercise of superintendence over the vigilance administration of the Ministries/ Departments/ Organisations etc. has been emphasizing on the need for quick and early processing and finalization of complaints of corruption and disciplinary proceedings pending with the Ministries/ Departments/ Organisations etc.

(b) & (c): No centralized data is maintained in respect of number of corruption cases pending for disposal. However, CVC has instructed all Chief Vigilance Officers (CVOs) to finalise all such cases pending for over six months on priority basis and the Commission periodically reviews and monitors the progress of such work.

Further, Department of Personnel and Training (DoP&T) vide O.M No. 11018/3/94-AIS-III dated 09.06.1995 had issued the procedure for intimation of disciplinary proceedings against the officers of All India Services. DoP&T has also issued guidelines regarding handling of complaints in Ministries/ Departments vide O.M No.104/76/2011.AVD-I dated 18.10.2013 and 18.06.2014.

A Committee chaired by Secretary (DoP&T) also monitors the status of all delayed cases of sanction for prosecution on quarterly basis and takes necessary steps to resolve delayed cases expeditiously. The respective Cadre Controlling Authority of other Central Services/ Cadres have also been directed to monitor disciplinary cases against officers of those services periodically.
